“Taste of Asia” Festival Celebrates Asian American Heritage

Northbrook, IL: May 2013 – The second annual “Taste of Asia,” held on Sunday, May 5th, drew over 1,100 people to the North Suburban YMCA with its rich selection of Asian culture. The festival was presented by the Northbrook Community Relations Commission in honor of Asian American Heritage Month.

The event included art exhibitions and demonstrations, music and dance performances, and a wide selection of cuisines. Taste of Asia beautifully reflected the diverse Asian-American population from the northern suburbs of Chicago. Participating ethnic groups included: Bangladeshi, Chinese, Filipino, Indian, Japanese, Korean, Thai and Russian.

“I am extremely happy about the turnout. It was amazing that we doubled the number of attendees from last year,” said Northbrook Community Relations Commission Board Member Sue Huang. “It’s a wonderful feeling seeing little girls performing their traditional dances on the stage and watching everyone have a great time.”

The two-hour schedule of performances included a Chinese Fan Dance by the Niles West High School Chinese Club, Indian Bollywood Remix by Culture in Motion, Filipino music from Sama Sama Project, Thai Dance from the Thai Culture and Fine Arts Institute of Chicago, Russian music by Campanella Children’s Choir and much more.

Arts and artifacts available for purchase included pottery, henna hand art, jewelry, calligraphy and painting. In addition, a hands-on creative arts area allowed guests of all ages to create their own works of art to take home. A film also played throughout the afternoon titled “Becoming American – The Chinese Experience.”

A reception was held during the event in the Y’s Community Gallery for their May exhibit, which open
